

Free Ice Skating on the Frog Pond!

Highland Street Foundation is pleased to announce Winter Camp 2016 which will include free ice skating on Boston Common's Frog Pond during February school vacation week (February 15-19).

There will be special guests and activities throughout the week, thanks to our partners: Appalachian Mountain Club, Boston Parks and Recreation Department, the Boston Red Sox, and Houghton Mifflin Harcourt.

There is no cost for admission or skate rentals. In order to avoid long waiting times, tickets for available time slots will be allocated on site on a first-come, first-served basis each day.

See you at the Frog Pond!

Community Impact Consultants

Congratulations to the following organizations which have been selected to participate in the Community Impact Consulting program. These nonprofits will receive consulting services in order to help position them for future growth and long-term sustainability.

Youth Philanthropy Kicks Off

This month, we will kick off this year's Youth Philanthropy Initiative. We're excited to partner with 20 schools and community organizations, enabling more than 300 youth to gain a better understanding of the responsibility and power of giving.

"We learned so much through this program. It has been great to become more involved in helping our community. Even though the program has ended, we have arranged a book drive for one of the charities we funded. And some of our friends are going to paint their kitchen."

First Night First Day

It was a special end and beginning to the new year thanks to First Night First Day. Highland Street was proud to support this 40-year old civic and community tradition. From family-friendly performances and fireworks to a world-class figure skating ice show, Boston came together, once again, to demonstrate the incredible spirit that lives within the heart of our community.

Happy New Year!
